

Volunteer at Kaunas Lagoon Regional Park

📍 Kaunas, Lithuania

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

Kaunas lagoon regional park directorate is a governmental organization established in 1992 with a purpose to preserve and keep Kaunas lagoon's (man-made) unique nature: cliffs, outcrops, rare animals and plant species for future generations. We are responsible for managing regional infrastructure and control of people living in the regional park about keeping the environmental laws. We have 7 employees responsible for monitoring, inspection, educational activities, events, and other activities. Our daily work varies from office to nature.

TASKS

Two different volunteering positions are available:

- 1) practical work (fixing infrastructure, cutting bushes, grass, monitoring visitors, nature observation, counting numbers of animals, birds, plants) and other work related with seasonal works in the regional park.
- 2) working with kids and adults in the visitors centre, and with the "Young ranger" circle (organizing activities for little kids) helping with monitoring nature, herb picking, sign making, taking photos and videos of daily activities.
